In 1971, with one round to go, Korchnoi and Olafsson were co-leading, then Korchnoi beat Hübner, meanwhile Olafsson drew Donner, thus Viktor Korchnoi won the traditional Wijk tournament at his second and last participation for the USSR a second time outright (he previously won in 1968), this time half a point ahead of four joint runners-up, Gligoric, Petrosian, Ivkov and Olafsson, followed by another joint four players, namely Mecking, Andersson, Hort and Hübner. Hans Ree shared the tenth place (16 participants, including veteran Najdorf).

Grandmaster Hans Ree (1944) is a four-time Dutch champion, and represented his country from 1966 through 1994 in every Chess Olympiad.

During his active chess career, Hans Ree battled with almost all the great chessplayers, including eight world champions, from Max Euwe to Anatoly Karpov.

From 2001-2007, he was the wearer of the Euwe Ring, an award for outstanding service to Dutch chess. He writes about chess in NRC Handelsblad, New in Chess magazine, and on the American website Russell-Enterprises.com. Internationally, Hans Ree is considered to be one of the best chess writers of his era.

A grandmaster, excellent writer and careful researcher who doesn't seek out controversy, but is equally unafraid to plumb the sometimes murky depths of chess politics, Ree is an ideal chess journalist.” Jon Speelman, The Observer
