

Torneo de Gijón (1944 – 1965; 12 editions)

Alekhine, Euwe, Larsen, Rossolimo, Prins, Luis Bronstein from Argentina, Pomar, Perez, Toran, and surprising Antonio Rico are the tournament winners.

Amongst further players: O'Kelly, Donner, Pilnik, Darga, Grob, or Medina.

Cherchez la femme: Chantal Chaudé de Silans from France played in 1950.

No.	Year	Champion	Country	Points
I	1944	Alexander Alekhine, reigning World Champion (13 years young Pomar drew Alekhine!)	France	7'5 / 8
II	1945	Antonio Rico (2./3. Alekhine (!) and Medina, 4. Pomar; 6. Lupi)	Spain	8 / 9
III	1946	Francisco J. Pérez (2. Medina, 3. Ribeiro, 4. Rico, 5. Lupi, incl. Pomar)	Spain	8'5 / 11
IV	1947	Lodewijk Prins (best on tie-break) Francisco J. Pérez (2nd co-win) (3. Medina, 4. Fuentes, 5. Wood, incl. Pomar)	The Netherlands Spain	10'5 / 13
V	1948	Antonio Rico (2nd win) (2. Wood, 3.-5. Pérez, Prins, Toran)	Spain	8 / 10
VI	1949	Nicolás Rossolimo (2. O'Kelly, 3. Prins, 4./5. Medina, Toran)	France	10 / 11
VII	1950	Nicolás Rossolimo (2nd win) (2./3. Dunkelbum, Pomar, 4./5. Prins, Toran, 6. Grob who beat the eventual tournament winner Rossolimo)	France	8'5 / 11
VIII	1951	Max Euwe, former World Champion (2. Pilnik, 3. Rossolimo, 4. Prins, 5./6. Medina, Pomar)	The Netherlands	8 / 10
IX	1954	Román Torán (2. Rellstab, 3. Pérez)	Spain	7 / 9
X	1955	Arturo Pomar (2. Orbaan, 3. Rodrigo)	Spain	9 / 10
XI	1956	Bent Larsen (2. Darga, 3./4 Donner, O'Kelly, 5. Diez del Corral, 6. Pérez Pérez, 7. Toran Albero)	Denmark	7'5 / 9
XII	1965	Luis Bronstein (2. Suttles, 3./4. Vidau, Durao)	Argentina	5'5 / 7

<http://ajedrezdeataque.com/05%20Palmares/Torneos/Espana/Gijon.htm>

by Javier Cordero Fernández

Antonio Rico Gonzalez, twice winner at Gijon:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Antonio_Rico (Wikipedia)

<http://www.chessgames.com/perl/chessplayer?pid=13672> (Chessgames)

<http://web.archive.org/web/20120621141403/http://www.fapajedrez.es/wordpress/?p=883>

<http://web.archive.org/web/20120621103836/http://www.fapajedrez.es/wordpress/?p=790>

Photo: Chessgames

Rossolimo en simultanée à Paris au club de Caïssa 1951

→ Year-by-Year survey:

<http://historiadelaajedrezespanol.es/torneos/gijon.htm>

(note: in 1965, David Bronstein is wrong, the winner is Luis Bronstein from Argentina)

→ Year-by-Year survey in detail with complete standings, games and origin pictures, by Rafael Santander:

1st edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1944.html (1944)

2nd edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1945.html (1945)

3rd edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1946.html (1946)

4th edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1947.html (1947)

5th edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1948.html (1948)

6th edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1949.html (1949)

7th edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1950.html (1950)

8th edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1951.html (1951)

9th edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1954.html (1954)

10th edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1955.html (1955)

11th edition: http://ajedrecito3.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1956.html (1956)

12th edition: http://ajedrecito5.galeon.com/ibero/ti_gijon1965.html (1965)

→ Book: <http://www.chesslund.com/detail.asp?id=9380&n=1944-1965-GIJN-TORNEOS-INTERNACIONALES-DE-AJEDREZ-DE-GIJN>

2018, published in: <http://www.chessdiagonals.ch/>