BRICKHOUSE TO RELEASE NEW ALBUM
MUCH ANTICIPATED RELEASE SET FOR MARCH 19

VANCOUVER, BC: Brickhouse, arguably Vancouver's favorite Blues Funk Band is set to release their newest album "Future" on Saturday March 19, 2016 with a show at the Rio Theatre on West Broadway.

"We're about as excited as we could be" says Rob Bracken, lead singer and harp player, "our fans have been so loyal to us over the last few years in particular. This album is really our tribute to the support they've have given us..."

Brickhouse developed an intensely loyal following through their 12-year house gig at The Yale Hotel. Recording a new studio album seemed like the most logical next step and surprisingly, going into the studio was a great bonding experience for Rob, Ray, Neil, Darryl, Oz and Ed. An experience that seemed to energize the band as they celebrate over a decade of great music made together.

FUTURE is an album of songs that grew out of gigging and collaborating live; and although Rob wrote just about every song; the band is known for giving each other the space to let individual contribution affect the overall vibe of every tune resulting in Brickhouse's unique brand of music; an intoxicating mix of Blues and Funk. The result is a collection of great tunes that will get inside your head and stay there until you're dancing like everyone else.

Future will be officially released at a show and CD release party on Saturday March 19 at the Rio Theatre www.riotheatre.ca and tickets $20 each and can be bought online or at the theatre box office (tickets, if available will be $25 at the door). During and after the show; fans can by CDs, posters, and even a copy of their 12" LP.

Brickhouse is a Band from Vancouver: Made up of 6 musicians; Rob Bracken, Ray Keesh, Neil Cruickshank, Darryl Havers, Oz Zitek and Ed Johnson.
